

OATH OF CONFIDENTIALITY

DEFINITION

Disclosed in secret-entrusted with another's confidentiality

Classified-private-privy-secret-restricted-undisclosed

THIS OATH OF CONFIDENTIALITY APPLIES TO

All staff (i.e. management, line staff, and administration, all members of the board of directors, all committee members, practicum students, advocates, and volunteers.)

I, _____ understand that confidential information is any information, verbal or non-verbal or written, obtained from the client, the clients' family, advocates or volunteers, management, co-workers from your program(s), or coworkers from other programs and any related professional.

I further understand that a breach of confidential information entails the disclosure, either verbal or non-verbal, or written, or any information related to the Fort St. John Association for Community Living in any setting.

I understand that the disclosure of such confidential information could have a serious and detrimental effect on the clients, their families, staff, and the Fort St. John Association for Community Living.

Therefore, I agree that given the severity of a breach of confidential information, such a breach will be grounds for immediate dismissal.

I further understand that the oath of confidentiality is still in effect even after I leave the employment of the Fort St. John Association for Community Living.

Civil action in a court of law could result if there is a breach.

I certify that I have read the above information and understand the implications.
